

Explore Diverse Neighborhoods in DC

Smithsonian National Museum of African American History and Culture (NMAAHC)
14th St and Constitution Ave, NW, Washington, DC 20001

<https://nmaahc.si.edu>

Same-Day Online Tickets: Up to four (4) same-day timed entry passes are available online starting at 6:30 a.m.

U Street Corridor

This strip between 17th Street and 9th Street NW, was once a center of African-American culture. Check this multimedia history project: Black Broadway on U (<http://blackbroadwayonu.com>).

Mulebone, 2121 14th St NW

Ben's Next Door, 1211 U St NW

Ben's Chili Bowl, 1213 U St NW

Florida Avenue Grill, 1100 Florida Ave NW

Little Ethiopia

The DC area is home to the nation's largest Ethiopian community, which makes up the largest African immigrant group in the region. Settling first in parts of Adams Morgan, then along 9th Street NW in Shaw.

Habesha Market and Carry Out, 1919 9th St NW

Chercher Ethiopian Restaurant & Mart, 1334 9th St NW

Dukem Ethiopian Restaurant, 1114-1118 U St NW

Adams Morgan

Yes, it's a trendy neighborhood, but it also has great Afrobeat music and West African food.

Bossa, 2463 18th St NW

Timheri International, 2439 18th St NW

Bukom Café, 2442 18th St NW

Ivy City

There's a neighborhood full of top distilleries of the region.

Republic Restorative Distilleries, 1369 New York Ave NE

Jos A Magnus, 2052 W Virginia Ave NE

Union Station

Sidamo Coffee & Tea, 417 H St NE

Union Market, 1309 5th St NE

Outdoor Fun

Roosevelt Island, <https://www.nps.gov/this/planyourvisit>

Rock Creek Parks, <https://www.nps.gov/rocr/planyourvisit>