Our Projects

- Demographic Research

- Our audience is politically engaged and highly active in their communities
- According to 2006 research, only 25% of our audience is shared amongst MC members.
- The choir is far larger and more diverse than anyone expected.

- Vertical Advertising Network

- You'll hear about that shortly!

- MediaWires!

So, What are the MediaWires?

- A.) A series of topic-based aggregators around key progressive issues
- B.) A system of social media tools for media, NGOs and non-profits to inform and engage their constituencies.
- C.) An easy opportunity for partnership.

D.) All of the Above

The image displays three overlapping screenshots of the 'the media consortium' NewsLadder website. Each screenshot shows a different NewsLadder category: Immigration, Healthcare, and Economy. The top banner of each page reads 'the media consortium' and 'Passionate Independent Journalism' (for Immigration and Healthcare) or 'Powerful Independent Journalism' (for Healthcare) or 'Independent Journalism' (for Economy). The main content area features a list of articles with their titles, sources, and submission details. The right sidebar includes a 'Join The Economy' section with a 'Post a Story' button and a description of the NewsLadder's mission.

Toolkit in Action: Headline Widgets

The screenshot shows a Windows Internet Explorer browser window displaying the website <http://www.ncrw.org/hcnrbigfive/economic-security>. The page features a dark brown header with the text "The Big Five" and "What's at Stake for Women and the Nation". Below the header, the main content area is titled "Economic Security". On the left side, there is a navigation menu with categories: "The Big 5", "The Real Deal Blog", "Elections 2008", and a numbered list of subtopics: "1 Economic Security", "2 Health", "3 Violence", "4 Immigration", and "5". The subtopic "1 Economic Security" is expanded, showing a list of links: "Subtopics", "Poverty", "Guaranteed Leave", "Affordable Childcare", "Mortgage Crisis", "Taxes", "Earned Income Tax Credit", and "Raising Minimum Wage". On the right side, there is a widget titled "ECONOMY & NEWSLADDER" which is circled in orange. The widget contains the following text: "Assessing Racial Equity Impacts in the House Stimulus Bill", "SENATE GOP BLOCKS ADDED INFRASTRUCTURE INVESTMENT", and "Japan's & Australia's Stim Packages: They're Just Like Us!". At the bottom of the widget is a button that says "READ MORE TOP STORIES". The browser's taskbar at the bottom shows the Start button, several open applications (Inbox - Microsoft Out..., The Big Five » Econo..., Fact Sheets), and the system tray with the time 4:05 PM.

Inauguration 09: Yes We Can, And Yes We Will!

On January 20, almost 2 million people braved freezing temperatures, tight security and long treks in Washington D.C. to be part of the inauguration of Barack Obama as the country's first African-American president.

"New America Now's" Odette Keeley hiked alongside the crowd in the Capital Hill area and some of them told her they hope the President keeps his greatest promise. Min Lee is a video producer for YO! and NAM.

The screenshot shows the 'THE WHITE HOUSE 2' website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for 'ABOUT', 'FAQ', 'FEEDBACK', 'INVITATIONS', 'PARTNER', and 'JOIN US'. Below this is a search bar and a status line indicating '7,206 CITIZENS · 249,133 ENDORSEMENTS · 41 PARTNERS'. The main content area features a navigation menu with 'HOME', 'ISSUES', 'PRIORITIES', 'TALKING POINTS', 'NEWS', and 'NETWORK'. A 'JUST RELEASED' section highlights a report on the Stimulus Plan. The primary focus is a 'Discussions on Healthcare' section, which includes a list of discussion topics and a comment from 'stark' dated 2 months ago. An orange oval highlights a 'News and Opinion' sidebar containing three articles: 'Birth Control for Men: Coming Soon?', 'Et tu, Barack?', and 'AIDS Advocates Call for Open Process For Global AIDS Administrator'. To the right, a 'HOW THIS WORKS' section explains the democratic process, and a 'YOUR PRIORITIES' section encourages users to join the network.

At the time of this post, there are 746 in favor of commie healthcare and 242 opposed. In the 47 discussions are over 90% of comments made by the opposition. Those in favor can not come up with real reasons for their opinion other than they want the government to work magic.

HOW THIS WORKS

We're imagining how the White House might work if it was run completely democratically by thousands of people on the internet. Get started by setting your priorities for the nation.

Step 1. Watch the video introduction

Step 2. Create an account

Step 3. ENDORSE or OPPOSE priorities

Step 4. Sort list below (drag & drop) or click position # to change it.

Step 5. Submit your agenda to Obama

Step 6. Invite others to join

The more people who endorse a priority, the higher it rises in the charts. The more people who join the network, the more clout we will have with the President and the media.

YOUR PRIORITIES

Join the network to set your own priorities for America. It's free and only takes a minute. If you
