- D. All content created through this Agreement will carry the following acknowledgement: This report was made possible by a generous grant from the Chicago Community Trust.
- E. Upon publication/production of the collaboration, Grantee will provide the Media Consortium with the url of the collaboration as well as copies of any print or other physical materials produced.
- F. Work shall be completed on the collaboration by July 20, 2017.
- G. Grantee may not use any Media Consortium grant funds to lobby or otherwise attempt to influence legislation, to influence the outcome of any public election, or to carry out any voter registration drive. This grant must be used in the project identified above. Grantee accepts responsibility for complying with this agreements' terms and conditions and will exercise full control over the grant and the expenditure of grant funds.
- E. The Media Consortium reserves the right to discontinue, modify, or withhold any payments to be made under this grant or to require a total or partial refund of any grant funds if, in the Media Consortium's sole discretion, such action is necessary (1) because Granteee has not fully complied with the terms and conditions of this grant; (2) to protect the purpose and objectives of the grant or any other charitable activities of the Media Consortium or its parent, the Foundation for National Progress; or (3) to comply with any laws or regulations applicable to the Grantee, to the Media Consortium or to this grant.

Grantees' deposit or endorsement of the check Grantee receives will constitute agreement with the terms and conditions set forth above. However, for the Media Consortium's files, please sign this agreement and return a pdf to the Media Consortium.

On behalf of Grantee, I understand and agree to the foregoing terms and conditions of the Media Consortium's grant, and hereby certify my authority to execute this agreement on Grantee's behalf.

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/fw9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

- 1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number
- 2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- 3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
- 4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.
